

Now Accepting Nominations for The Journey Fellowship for Students 2009

Do you know students who

- ... enjoy working with children and youth?
- ... would benefit from personal grounding and professional development?
- ... could complete a paid internship at a youth-serving agency during Summer 2009?

January 31: Deadline for Student Nominations

In addition to $1000 internships in the youth development field, students will attend two all-expense paid retreats and engage in campus-based enrichment programs.
