2009 Journey Fellowship Statement of Commitment

I am fully aware that The Journey Fellowship is an opportunity for me to renew and develop myself and help transform the profession of youth work. I understand that the full cost of the Fellowship is paid for and provided by The Journey, a program of AYS, through a grant from the Lilly Endowment, with the exception of my personal travel costs to and from events.

I have checked the dates for sessions and will be available and able to attend. I understand that the quality of the Fellowship experience is affected by my participation and I commit to being a full participant in the fellowship program for the coming year.

I also understand that, as a leader in the field, there is an expectation that I will take full advantage of all the resources invested in me. I view The Journey Fellowship as an opportunity to do and be more for myself, the organizations I lead, and my profession.

I am ready, willing and able for 2009 to be a great year.
