SAVE THE DATE!
Join us & Parker J. Palmer and celebrate the tenth anniversary re-release of The Courage to Teach, as well as the release of Leading from Within.

“Every profession that attracts people for ‘reasons of the heart’ is a profession in which people and the quality of their work suffer from losing heart. Like teachers, these people are asking, ‘How can we take heart again so we can give heart to others?’—which is why they undertook their work in the first place.”

— Parker J. Palmer
